Connecticut Residents: Genealogy & History Resources from the Connecticut State Library and Your Local (Town) Library

A library card from your (Connecticut) hometown library gives you access to many shared resources via researchIt CT (formerly known as iConn).

You can also access even more databases (including Fold3) with a library card from the Connecticut State Library. You can obtain a card in person, or by mail, using this online application.

Click here to search a complete list of databases offered by the State Library. Some are accessible with a town library card, others require a card from the Connecticut State Library itself.
